

For Immediate Release

FORMER ASSISTANT STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL JOINS COLODNY, FASS, TALENFELD, KARLINSKY & ABATE

Fort Lauderdale, FL – Former Florida Assistant Attorney General Rochelle D. Brahm recently joined the law firm of Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate as a litigation associate. Her broad range of insurance industry experience has been focused on the detection, investigation and civil prosecution of fraudulent claims.

Prior to joining the Firm, Brahm represented major insurance companies in the defense of personal injury protection (PIP), claims, bodily injury/uninsured/underinsured motorist claims and health care claims.

During her tenure as Assistant Attorney General, Brahm directed investigations and prosecuted complex white collar crimes such as Medicaid fraud and money laundering. In addition to recognition through various awards, Brahm's work resulted in her being named as specially-appointed prosecutor for Office of Statewide Prosecution, as well as for the Miami-Dade and Palm Beach County State Attorneys' Offices.

A member of the Florida and District of Columbia Bars, Brahm is admitted to practice in all Florida state trial and appellate courts.

Among her many accomplishments, Brahm, a graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, received the American Jurisprudence Book Award, the Order of the Barristers Award for Trial Advocacy, and the State of Florida Davis Productivity Award. She also received the "2001 Investigation of Year" Award from the National Health Care Anti-Fraud Association.
