HUSBAND/WIFE TEAM JOINS COLODNY, FASS, TALENFELD, KARLINSKY & ABATE

Fort Lauderdale/Tallahassee, Fla. – Husband and wife duo Frank Mayernick and Tracy Hogan Mayernick have joined Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate, P.A. as governmental consultants. Working statewide, the Mayernicks will be based at the law firm’s Tallahassee office.

As the former Legislative Affairs Director for the Florida Department of Juvenile Justice (“DJJ”), Frank Mayernick has over a decade of experience in the legislative process. Prior to his tenure at the DJJ, he served as a legislative aide for Senator Charlie Clary. Most recently, he has represented private sector clients.

A member of the Florida Bar, Mayernick received his law degree from Florida State University College of Law in 2002 and his Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Florida State University. Mayernick is a native of Niceville, FL.

With nearly a decade of political strategy experience, Tracy Hogan Mayernick, a non-attorney, has an extensive background in funding and public policy issues related to healthcare, telecommunications, the environment, agriculture, economic development, transportation and criminal justice. Prior to joining Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate, she was involved with political grassroots programs in support of legislative candidates statewide.

A 2002 Florida State University graduate, Tracy is a native of Tampa, Florida.
