Tallahassee, FL - Fort Lauderdale-based Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate has moved its Tallahassee governmental consulting and law office to a new location more than nearly four times the size of its former Tallahassee quarters.

The new office is closer to the Capitol than the former location and affords capacity for a four-fold staff increase.

Opening on August 27, 2007, in advance of the Special Legislative Session scheduled to begin in September, Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate's expanded Tallahassee facilities will include a large meeting capacity conference room, state of-the-art video conferencing system and large document production capacity.

Colodny, Fass, Talenfeld, Karlinsky & Abate's new Tallahassee office address as of August 27, 2007 is:

215 S. Monroe Street, Suite 701
Tallahassee, FL 32301

The telephone number and all other contact information will remain the same. The Firm's South Florida headquarters remains in Fort Lauderdale.
